Changemakers series

by Steve Bradbury and Allan Harkness

Published by TEAR Australia

This is a series of four Bible study guides produced by TEAR Australia. The Bible is full of evidence of God's abiding love for the poor, deep mercy and passion for justice. These study booklets provide an opportunity to prayerfully examine this evidence and explore its implications for Christian living.

- Awake to the World
- Seeing and Praying
- Eyes Wide Open
- Seeing Faith at Work

The studies can be bought separately or as complete sets.

Crossway Bible Guides

Editors Ian Coffey and Stephen Gaukroger

Published by Crossway and IVP

These are designed both for group study and for personal devotional use. They provide a summary and lively application of each passage, with questions to look more deeply into personal, church-centred and global issues. They help us to really understand the Bible's message. There are now 27 of these books available.

John Stott's Bible Studies

Published by IVP

A series of eight Bible study booklets on New Testament books by John Stott which are ideal for group or individual use.

Calling Christian Leaders

by John Stott

Published by IVP ISBN 0 85111 257 9

John Stott has found in his travels that models of Christian leadership today are often shaped more by culture than by Christ. He urges that our view of leadership must be determined by our view of the Church, and not the other way round. He demonstrates how central is the theme of 'power through weakness' and urges Christian leaders to be characterised above all else by 'the meekness and the gentleness of Christ'.

Justice, Mercy and Humility: integral mission and the poor

by Tim Chester

Published by Paternoster Press ISBN 1 842271 62 8

This book explores the challenge of integral mission among the poor today and raises new questions about what it means to be a church.

Tearfund international resources

PILLARS Guides

A series of eight information books produced by Tearfund UK, on topics including food security, healthy eating, community mobilisation, capacity building and preparing for disaster. They are written for use in participatory discussion with small community groups. Each guide contains Bible studies designed for small groups. They are designed for ease of translation into other languages.

Footsteps

A quarterly newspaper produced by Tearfund UK, linking health and development workers worldwide. Each issue shares new ideas and information on one particular aspect of community development and includes a Bible study relating to the topic of the issue.
