

Reducing risk of disaster in our communities

Reducing risk of disaster in our communities

by Paul Venton and Bob Hansford

Editor: Rachel Blackman

Design: Wingfinger

The authors wish to thank Professor Ian Davis for allowing the use of his disaster models in this book and for reviewing the book so thoroughly and providing helpful comments. Marcus Oxley had the original idea for the PADR tool. The authors wish to acknowledge his commitment to, and enthusiasm for, the production of this book. Thanks to Tearfund partners EFICOR and Discipleship Centre in India, who committed a lot of time and energy to the development of the PADR tool. Thanks also to Lorna Victoria, Dewi Hughes, AIDTS, Tearfund partners and Tearfund staff for contributing case studies, reviewing drafts and field testing this book.

Knowing how Tearfund's publications are used by partners and other organisations helps us to improve the quality of future publications. If you wish to give feedback on this book, please write to Tearfund or e-mail roots@tearfund.org

Other titles in the ROOTS series are:

- ROOTS 1 and 2 – Advocacy toolkit
A set of two separate books:
Understanding advocacy (ROOTS 1) and
Practical action in advocacy (ROOTS 2).
Available only as a set.
- ROOTS 3 – Capacity self-assessment.
An organisational assessment tool to enable organisations to identify their capacity-building needs.
- ROOTS 4 – Peace-building within our communities.
Learning points taken from case studies of Tearfund partners who have been involved in encouraging peace and reconciliation in communities.
- ROOTS 5 – Project cycle management. Looks at the process of planning and managing projects using the project cycle. Describes planning tools such as needs and capacity assessments and stakeholder analysis and shows clearly how to develop a logical framework.

- ROOTS 6 – Fundraising. Shows how to develop a fundraising strategy and contains ideas to help organisations diversify their funding base.
- ROOTS 7 – Child participation. Looks at the importance of including children in community life and in project planning, implementation and evaluation.
- ROOTS 8 – HIV and AIDS: taking action. Looks at how Christian development organisations can respond to the challenges brought by HIV and AIDS, such as reducing their impact, preventing the spread of HIV and addressing HIV and AIDS issues within organisations.

All are available in English, French, Spanish and Portuguese.

For further details write to Resources Development, PO Box 200, Bridgnorth, Shropshire, WV16 4WQ, UK, or e-mail: roots@tearfund.org

© Tearfund 2006

ISBN 1 904364 59 4

Published by Tearfund. A company limited by guarantee. Registered in England No 994339. Registered Charity No 265464.

Tearfund is an evangelical Christian relief and development agency working through local partners to bring help and hope to communities in need around the world.

Tearfund, 100 Church Road, Teddington, TW11 8QE, UK

Tel: +44 (0)20 8977 9144

E-mail: roots@tearfund.org

Web: www.tearfund.org/tilz

Reducing risk of disaster in our communities

Paul Venton and Bob Hansford

Contents

	Introduction	5
Section 1	Christian perspectives on disaster	7
	1.1 Understanding disaster	7
	1.2 Our response to disaster	8
Section 2	Disaster theory	11
	2.1 The Crunch model	11
	2.2 The Release model	17
Section 3	Introduction to Participatory Assessment of Disaster Risk	21
	3.1 Good facilitation	21
	3.2 Categories of analysis	24
Section 4	The six steps of Participatory Assessment of Disaster Risk	27
	STEP 1 Preparation	28
	STEP 2 Hazard assessment	35
	STEP 3 Vulnerability assessment	39
	STEP 4 Capacity assessment	47
	STEP 5 Key informant interviews	54
	STEP 6 Action planning	56
Section 5	Improving effectiveness	63
	5.1 Measuring effectiveness	63
	5.2 Using PADR in different contexts	64
	5.3 Mainstreaming important issues	69
Section 6	Useful resources	73
	Glossary	75